loans to empower hardworking people

What is Micro?

Brought to you by World Vision, a leading Christian humanitarian organization, Micro is a new poverty-fighting program that connects individuals like you with hardworking but poor entrepreneurs in developing countries. Micro is based on the simple idea that you don't have to be rich to create economic opportunity for the poor.

How can I get involved?

- Visit www.WorldVisionMicro.org to read the stories and see the business ideas of hardworking entrepreneurs.
- Give a hand up by helping to fund a loan for a small business.
- Partner with other members of your church to fund a full loan through group giving on Micro!

In Cambodia, Chheang Leang used loans to expand rice production, buy livestock, and sell ice cream—efforts that have kept her children well fed and in school.
